Presidents Report – Alissa Carver

- Made a phone call to the accountant regarding moving FTAA from a 501C4 to a 501C3. This would allow for bigger companies to donate larger items. This will take some time to complete. Robb will look through the paperwork.

VP Report – Robb Schoener

- Added alcohol/drug policy to the bi-laws. Bring bi-laws up to date with any new policy changes.
- Commissioners are able to look at bi-laws to see what should be advised.

Treasurers Report – Mike Martino

Lacrosse – Alissa Carver – 107 players for the 2018 season. Indoor time is scheduled.

Soccer – Raph Margolin –U19-U17 teams will play together during the Spring season. 196 kids are signed up. Enrollment is still open. Season looking to start on 4/9.

Softball – Marc Green- 90 girls have signed up for the 2018 season. 4 days left of registration. 1 less team this year. A parent would like their daughter to move up 2 levels however, rule in place in bi-laws that states this is unacceptable unless there are not enough players on that team.

Wrestling – Tom Fleming – Season has ended. Had two boys go to state championships.

Fundraising Committee – Golf outing fundraiser to take place on August 10, 2018. 100 person minimum to have a successful event. 2 costs $64.00 or $95.00. Each Forks sport must have 2 teams of four for this event. $500.00 deposit will be made and was voted on.

Recreation Board –

Old Business:

- Nothing to Report

New Business

- Volunteer Coordinator is needed to create a Sign up Genius and track volunteer hours
- Need to tell people the reason for the golf outing fundraiser
- Commissioners are responsible for keeping track of volunteer hours.
- Peter Melan U-10 basketball coach feels that Forks needs to have teams separated by A/B team. Unable to compete with most towns. Would like to see Forks Basketball more competitive. This will need to be brought up at a league meeting.
- Scholarships will be coming in soon
